'22-23 Objectives

Anya kicked off the the topic with the PSA's Goals: to build connections, have fun, and empower families.

Anya summarized the 4th Street 2022 Spring Family Engagement Survey results - specifically the Net Promoter Score and Key Trends on Community Connections. The response rate was ~30% for this first-time survey. It serves as a baseline for all future surveys, given every 6 months. The next will be Jan-23.

Anya shared an infographic summarizing the 2022-23 PSA objectives and initiatives. These include:

1- Fostering Family Community through

- Pop-Ups
- Coffee Club
- Movie Night, and
- Restaurant Nights

2- Bolstering School Resources through:

- Clothing Drives
- Used Uniform Collection
- Neighbor in Need tradition

3- Leveraging Family Resources through:

- Feedback
- Supplies
- Volunteers
- Spring Gala

General Discussion included questions on the family survey, questions on the upcoming Back to School picnic, and interest in joining the PSA.

Closing Discussion was on the parent burnout article in the Welcome Packet.

Call to Action

Anya invited families to complete the Family Interest form to share skills or professional interests that align with expedition topics.

Family Leadership Opportunities include: Community Volunteers, Room Parents, Ward Ambassadors, PSA Chapter Leaders.

Anya also requested parents complete the Volunteer Sign Up on ParentSquare to support Fall School events.
